

CPCC Volunteer Agreement

Volunteers may be utilized from time to time to assist Central Piedmont Community College with a variety of activities and projects. This agreement is to verify that the individual whose signature appears below clearly understands that his/her services are being donated to Central Piedmont.

Volunteer services are usually donated for a specific program and/or period of time and may be terminated by the volunteer or Central Piedmont Community College at any time. Volunteers are not employees of Central Piedmont and are not eligible for pay, insurance, retirement, workers compensation, or any other employee benefits.

Volunteers agree to indemnify and hold harmless Central Piedmont Community College from any and all claims of action that may arise out of performance of assigned duties. Volunteers understand that they may come in contact with information that is protected by federal law. Volunteers understand and agree that such information will not be inappropriately used or disclosed whether during or after their volunteer service.

By signing this agreement, the volunteer acknowledges full awareness that no benefits, pay or preference for employment will be received in return for the donated services. The volunteer chooses to donate his/her services to Central Piedmont Community College and agrees to all terms of this agreement.
